

A Violinist's Celebration: SUZUKI AND THE FIDDLER

It's a social day of music!
Spend the day with highly acclaimed Suzuki pedagogue, Everett Goodwin, and local fiddlers Emily Bowman and Vi Wickam as they take you on a journey of music making.

Start off in the morning with Suzuki style fun and games —
revel with new friends while learning new approaches to the violin! Follow up in the afternoon with a couple of fiddle tunes to keep your foot
tapping all summer long.

We'll cap off the day with a musical review on The Old Town Square Plaza Stage,
sponsored by The Downtown Business Association.
Learning by ear and tuning up
your intonation never sounded
so good or made you smile so widely – guaranteed fun and musical growth.
Come study with the masters.
You don't want to miss this collaborative winner of a day!

For Pre-twinklers through Suzuki Book 6.

The Violinist's Celebration: A SUZUKI MORNING

The morning's activities are led by Everett Goodwin, assisted by Emily Bowman, with a theme of "Loosey, Goosey" Suzuki morning: focusing on loose fingers, loose hands, loose arms makes a more relaxed and fluid performer!

One parent is required to attend with Pre-Twinkler through Book 3 students. Pre-Twinkler and Book 1 students will participate in all events through the first class ending at 9:35. In the Suzuki tradition of learning from older students and by observation, we strongly encourage students and parents to attend the additional Book 2 and up classes for at least one of the two remaining morning sessions. A musical craft will additionally be offered during the 10:20 – 10:55 session for those who do not wish to attend both classes. All students must participate in the 11:00 rehearsal in order to join the 3:30 afternoon performance at the Old Town Square Plaza Stage.

Lunch begins at 11:30, with a special visitor at 11:50.

Bruce Adolphe will join us in our own private performance as part of our Noon Time Jam (&PB) series. Bruce Adolphe, the founder and director of the Meet the Music! family concert series and resident lecturer at The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, keyboard quiz-master on public radio's weekly Piano Puzzler on Performance Today, founder and creative director of The Learning Maestros and our guest composer in residence for Off the Hook joins us for this mid-day concert. This half hour performance is open and free to siblings and parents of all participating students!

Videos coming soon for previewing of workshop repertoire.

Last Note: Remember, the key to a highly successful day and concert is great preparation by our participating students! Please review and study with your teacher the assigned pieces of your level. We are excited to see what everyone can fully contribute to this Day of Celebration! For Book 2 and 3 participants, please download Puppet Show. For Book 4 and up, please download and prepare La Cumparsita. All Students, please review the Fiddler's videos to get a preview of the focus tunes for the Fiddler's afternoon. Additional repertoire and videos to come soon!
