All fiddle categories (except the novice categories) are certified by the National Oldtime Fiddlers' Contest in Weiser, Idaho. First place winners will receive a beautiful certificate and their entry fees will be paid for the 2010 National Oldtime Fiddlers' Contest.

On Saturday the music competition will start at 9 a.m. and run throughout the day with a break for lunch, and dinner. Contestants will win over $400 in prizes and trophies. Saturday night will feature the final round of the Grand Championship category, as well as the final round for the new Twin Fiddle category. In addition, Wyoming Fiddlers' Association District #4 will do a short entertainment segment, and the judges will present the final performance of the evening.

There will be a variety dinner prior to the Saturday night show. The cost is $20 per person, $25 for children 10 & under. Reservations must be made by Monday, August 10.

On Sunday morning, one-hour music workshops will be presented by Amy and Daniel Carwie and Bill McKay. A fiddle workshop for beginner-intermediate players entitled "How to improve tone, intonation, technique & timing" will be presented by the Carwies, who will also present a master fiddle workshop entitled "Tips, techniques and suggestions for improvement" for intermediate-advanced players. Bill McKay will present "Getting beyond backup: Creative group playing for two or more." The cost of each workshop is $25.

We have a block of rooms set aside especially for you at a cost of $79/night for one to four people. Room reservations must be made by August 1, 2012 to get the special rate. Call 307-382-8281
